Dear Sir. Matheen.

I have not received like now any invitation to any of the functions connected with the Viceregal visit to Bangalore, as I used to receive on former occasions.
I do not know whether there has been any accidental omission. If the omission is deliberate, I have of course nothing to say, but if it is accidental kindly see that it is rectified.

Yours sincerely
M. Shamuyarira

I posted a letter this morning to the above effect to you. As one of my comments is going now to the Secretariat, I have sent this letter in succession of the letter posted.

V.V. 11-23-140.

Dear Mr. Shama Rao.

I have just received your letter. There is as you know, only one public function in the City connected with the Viceregal visit viz., the public arrival on the 27th instant. Formerly, in addition to the few officers to be presented individually, a pretty good number of officers, both in active service and ~~under~~ retired list, were being invited to b present on the platform. This time, this procedure has been departed from, and only officers to be presented individually are being asked to be present at the Railway Station; and the list of these, as you will understand, is very small. Even some of the Heads of Departments in office are not included in the list. The functions at the Residency have not been arranged by us

Yours sincerely,

Mrs

Dear Mr. Markham.

I have not received till now the invitation to the Railway Station in connection with the Viceregal visit as on former occasions. As possibly the omission

May we accidental Mercy
the matter to your Notice.
